Old Business:

A. Art Show:

- 1. Will we be bringing baked goods like last year? We decided we would, so Barb, Katie, Claudia and I said we would bring one batch each of something baked.
- 2. Escorts will need to be at the library at 9:45. Claudia will escort instead of Shirley, who will be out of town.
- 3. Set-up will be from 1:00 p.m. until finish on Sunday, October 14.
- 4. John Rule—is no longer caretaker of the display panels. Frank Hoffman of Regent's Bank in Belleville said he will arrange a time for the panels to be picked up.
- 5. Greeters on Monday, October 15th, will be Claudia, Mike, Mary, Geraldine, Lisa and Cynthia.
- 6. The reception table will be manned by me (Susan) and Katie.
- 7. The tear-down will start on Monday, October 22, from 3:00 until finish. Any artwork that has not been picked up by the artisan will be taken back to the Arts and Crafts Center and can be picked up there.
- 8. Entries: so far, not quite as many but we might get some from the Youth Center, and possibly from O'Fallon or Mascoutah High School.
- 9. Claudia reported that mugs would not be a cost-effective thing for new members, but she did look into shirts for the guild. She has already paid a set-up fee to have shirts printed. After some discussion, we decided on colors we wanted, (purple or navy polo) we listed our sizes, and we already have a logo. For an extra $5, we can have our names put on the shirts. The embroidery would take 2-3 weeks, depending on size. If you want to bring your own shirt and have it printed, it will cost only $6.50. Guild members will get $5 off the cost of the shirt (to be paid from guild funds). We will pay Gary next month for the shirts.
